

Scope and Content of Donation to University of Louisville Archives (12.08)

Over time Shelly Zegart will be donating to the University of Louisville Archives the contents of records, all photography, and multimedia beginning in 1977 representing the extensive and varied work she has accomplished during her national and international career with American Quilts.

- Series I. Donated in 2007. Contains original files (17,000 pages) of The Alliance for American Quilts from its founding in 1993 through the end of Mrs. Zegart's board presidency in August, 2006.
- Series II. Donated in 2008. Contains American Quilt Collections: Antique Quilt Masterpieces book archives, filebox of records of donations of quilts to institutions over the years, seven feet of binders of quilt inventories purchased for business by year, three binders of show photos, binder of quilts for sale by mail, quilt histories and provenance binder, copy of catalogue Shelly Zegart: Passionate About Quilts produced in September 2008 by the Kentucky Museum of Art and Craft (Louisville, Kentucky), accompanying retrospective exhibition of Zegart quilt career .